

The Impossible Transport for London Quiz!

Welcome to our quiz celebrating the transport network! For quizzes, photos and very best of what the Capital has to offer, head to our Experience London blog and say hello on Instagram!

Team name:

Round one: Unscramble the anagrams

1) 'Plum or raisin'

2) 'Whipcat heel'

3) 'A monster'

4) 'Passenger Ron'

5) 'Snob remedy'

Points for this round: / 5

abc Round two: Wordplay abc

1) What's the only Tube station that doesn't contain any of the letters of the word 'mackerel'?

2) Which two Tube stations are alphabetically the first on the network and last?

3) There are two Tube stations that contain all five vowels. What are they?

4) What is TLRN an acronym for?

5) Which word appears the most on the Tube map?

Points for this round: / 5

Round three: Knowledge

- 1) Which Tube station was damaged by a tornado in December 1954?

- 2) When London Overground was launched, what was the name of the service TfL took over?

- 3) What service stands at 200ft high and is available to cyclists?

- 4) Which station was previously known as 'Addison Road Station'?

- 5) How many traffic lights do TfL manage?

Points for this round: / 5

12
34 Round four: Numbers 12
34

- 1) How many metres does an average Londoner live from a bus stop?

- 2) How many cycle journeys take place every day in London on average?

- 3) What is the tidal range in metres between high and low tide of the Thames?

- 4) Approximately how many bus routes does London Trams serve?

- 5) How many cabins are there on the Emirates Air Line cable car and how many are in use at any one time? (No points without both answers!)

Points for this round: / 5
Final points: / 20

The Impossible Transport for London Quiz!

Answers

 Round one: Unscramble the anagrams

- 1) 'Plum or raisin' Ruislip Manor
- 2) 'Whipcat heel' Whitechapel
- 3) 'A monster' Stanmore
- 4) 'Passenger Ron' Parsons Green
- 5) 'Snob remedy' Bermondsey

 Round two: Wordplay

- 1) What's the only Tube station that doesn't contain any of the letters of the word 'mackerel'? St Johns Wood
- 2) Which two Tube stations are alphabetically the first on the network and last? Acton Town and Woodside Park
- 3) There are two Tube stations that contain all five vowels. What are they? South Ealing and Mansion House
- 4) What is TLRN an acronym for? 'Transport for London Road Network'
- 5) Which word appears the most on the Tube map? 'Park'

 Round three: Knowledge

- 1) Which Tube station was damaged by a tornado in December 1954? Gunnelsbury
- 2) When London Overground was launched, what was the name of the service TfL took over? Silverlink Metro
- 3) What service stands at 200ft high and is available to cyclists? Emirates Air Line cable car
- 4) Which station was previously known as 'Addison Road Station'? Kensington Olympia
- 5) How many traffic lights do TfL manage? 6,300

 Round four: Numbers

- 1) How many metres does an average Londoner live from a bus stop on average? 400m
- 2) How many cycle journeys take place every day in London on average? 730,000
- 3) In metres, what is the tidal range between high and low tide of the Thames? 7m
- 4) Approximately how many bus routes does London Trams serve? 50
- 5) How many cabins are there on the Emirates Air Line cable car and how many are in use at any one time 36 cabins and 34 are in use at any one time

